May 31, 1955

Mr. Allen W. Dulles, Director,

My dear Mr. Dulles:

The Task Force on Intelligence Activities desires that I express to you its sincere thanks and appreciation for the splendid assistance given us by your Mr. George G. Carey, Assistant Director for Operations, in the course of our recent survey.

Mr. Carey, as liaison officer, contributed much toward making our task in CIA less difficult, and more pleasant and comprehensive. He gave unsparingly of his time and attention in the performance of his assigned duties, and his constant courtesy, patience, and frankness contributed greatly toward our understanding of the broad aspects of the work being accomplished by the Agency. The Task Force, as a whole, was most favorably impressed by Mr. Carey's keen interest and everyday friendliness. His broad knowledge of the Agency proved invaluable for our purpose.

Please convey to Mr. Carey our sincere gratitude for his efforts.

Sincerely,
